VOL. CXXXIV— No. 53. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA. SATURDAY, MARCH 2, 1918. PRICE ONE CENT.

THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE

How Carefully the Health of President Wilson is Guarded by Admiral Grayson, his Physician.

The manner in which the health of President Wilson is looked after is told in an interesting article which appears in Physical Culture for March. It is written by Richard M. Winans and is given here in part:

Admiral Grayson is the one particular person in the President's official family who has unconditional and unmeasured entree to Mr. Wilson's presence. He watches the physical condition of the President as a hawk watches over the safety of its young. It never is necessary to send for this doctor. He always is, or momentarily will be somewhere in the immediate vicinity. Nor is the President ever interrupted or at all disturbed by the doctor's coming and going.

Even though the President may be in the throes of creative labor as he concentrates his mind upon the writing of an important message or be engaged in the momentous task of working out the solution of an international problem involving millions of men and billions of dollars, yet Dr. Grayson may walk in unannounced and lay a professional hand upon the President's pulse, or turn his head to note the appearance of his eyes or to detect a possible suspicious flush of the face. And if there are discovered untoward conditions to warrant it, the Doctor may say, "Stop! The indicator shows symptoms of trouble brewing, and we are going to do something about it."

Dr. Grayson may order the President to relax by taking a walk in the White House grounds, or to go for a motor ride to get a fresh supply of needed outdoor air, or to take a canter on his horse to shake him up and stimulate the activities of the nerve centers, or to go to the links for a game of golf to distract and ease his mind for the moment or, should the weather conditions prohibit outdoor activity, to take a turn at some indoor exercise to increase and quicken the circulation, to take a hot bath and a rub to accelerate the processes of elimination, or if the conditions warrant, he may even go so far as to order him to go to bed, and stay there until whatever the cause of the disturbance may be is under control.

But, whatever the order, the President obeys, at once and without question.

Dr. Grayson is a radical exponent of system; system in work, in play, in eating, in thinking, reading study, in sleeping, recreation, exercise—system in the entire scheme of life. Therefore, the President's life is completely and scientifically systematized, and he practices this system with almost machine-like regularity. In fact the President not infrequently has been called a machine. But he is not. He is very human.

Everything that surrounds and concerns the movements of the President is run upon a system which makes for efficiency. The Admiral likens his working system to a big electric plant, of which he is the center and of which Secretary Tumulty is the Director General, the connecting line with the outside world.

Secretary Tumulty thoroughly understands the President, both from a personal and an administrative standpoint, and he thus is able to make all of the various details of the system successfully co-ordinate. There is a very close, and intimately human as well as executive co-operation between the President and Mr. Tumulty. The President is saved the burden of worry about routine details, because they are kept away from him. It is a part of the system to arrest all such details before they reach the President, for that inevitably would involve that sort of distraction from concentrated thought and labor which ultimately would be injurious to his health.

THIRD LIBERTY LOAN.

Anniversary of U. S. Entering War Date Set by McAdoo.

Secretary McAdoo last night set April 6 as the date for the opening of the Third Liberty Loan campaign. It is the first anniversary of our entrance into the war against the Kaiser.

The amount, terms, and conditions of the loan have not been decided, Secretary McAdoo said, because these features are dependent upon further legislation.

HAD THREE QUARTS

John Jones Has Plentiful Supply of Whisky When Taken in Charge Last Night by Chief Goods.

A negro named John Jones was accosted early last night by Chief Goods when the former left an electric train at Prince and Royal streets, and upon investigation three quart bottles of whisky were found in his possession. He was taken in custody and this morning brought before the Police Court.

After the chief had made his statement, Jones was asked if he had anything to say, when he replied that he had not procured the liquor for the purpose of selling it, but that it was to be used by his mother as a stimulant, she being sick. He was held for the action of the grand jury.

Last Monday morning two white and two colored men were brought before the Police Court to answer the charge of being drunk in the streets. Each was asked where he obtained liquor, and they severally gave the stereotyped answer, "In Baltimore." Now it is not to be supposed that all such delinquents make trips to Baltimore for the purpose of obtaining liquor. That it is dispensed at places in Alexandria is the belief of most people. Certain individuals, some of whom were formerly in the liquor business, travel almost daily between Alexandria and Washington, and there is every reason to believe liquor is brought here daily.

The new prohibition law now before the Legislature will give the police additional power in ferreting out violators of the prohibition law, as under its provisions no search warrant may be necessary.

BOMB IN FEDERAL BUILDING.

Discovery Made in Room Used by I. W. W. Lawyers at Chicago.

Chicago, March 2.—Discovery of a bomb in the Federal building has furnished a mystery on which a number of government agents are working. The bomb, a steel cylinder, was found yesterday partly hidden under a pile of rubbish in one of the rooms occupied by lawyers in charge of the Industrial Workers of the World prosecution A fuse in one end had not been ignited. Experts of a powder company found the cylinder contained a number of metal slugs and an explosive powder. They gave as their opinion that the explosion of the bomb would have wrecked the entire wing of the Federal building.

Special Meetings at Salvation Army Hall..

There will be a two weeks' revival service at the Salvation Army hall, starting with a large open air meeting tonight at 8 o'clock. Meetings in the hall every night preceeded by an open air service. These meetings will be in charge of Adjt. and Mrs. Cuthbert and daughter Miss Linda, the sweet singer. Come and hear the man who has been "over the top." He will tell you how to do the same. There will be something special every night so do not miss any night. Every one welcome.

A French Girl Who Knows.

A French girl, 16 years old, has written to a prominent war worker in Washington: "There is a river in France so narrow that you can talk across it, birds can fly across with one sweep of their wings. There are great armies on either bank. They are as far apart as the stars in the sky—as right and wrong. There is a great ocean—it is so wide that the seagulls can not fly across it without resting. Upon either shore there are great nations. They are so slose however, that their hearts touch."

Candidate for Congress.

H. Earlton Hanes, an attorney with offices in the Woodward building, Washington, D. C., has announced himself as a candidate for Congress from the Eighth District of Virginia, subject to the Democratic primary. Mr. Hanes, in his announcement, says that he is not a farmer.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our thanks and deepest appreciations to our relatives and friends for their expressions of sympathy and beautiful floral tributes sent on the death of our mother, Anna M. Dorsey.

Alexandria City and Suburbs

Friendship council No. 28, Sons and Daughters of Liberty, held an interesting meeting last night. Two new applications for membership were received. This council has started its spring drive for new members. On Friday night, March 15th, a class initiation will be held.

"What God does with Backsliders," will be the subject of the sermon by Rev. Dr. E. B. Jackson at the First Baptist church tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. In the evening he will speak on "The Dangerous Experiences of Life." Sunday school will be held at 9:30 in the morning. Strangers will be cordially welcomed at all the services.

Quite a large number of country dealers brought produce to the city market this morning and business was apparently much better than on any Saturday before in months. The prices quoted on various articles were as follows: Butter brought 60 cents; fresh eggs 40 and 45; honey 20; guinea hens $1.50 each; butter milk 10 cents quart; cottage cheese 20 cents quart; spring onions, three bunches for 10 cents; carrots 15 cents quarter peck; salsify 15 cents bunch; cabbage five cents head; parsnips 15 cents quarter peck; potatoes 12 cents quarter peck; turnips 15 cents quarter peck; apples 25 cents half peck; celery five cents bunch. At one of the stalls a muskrat was offered for sale at 50 cents.

PUSHING CAMPAIGN.

State of Virginia Expected to Buy $45,000,000 Worth of War Savings Stamps.

Richmond, March 2.—Director Thomas B. McAdams, of the War Savings Campaign in Virginia, announces that reports gathered from all sections of the State regarding the sale of Thrift and War Savings Stamps indicate that the campaign is being pushed vigorously and that if the pace set by the workers during the last ten days is maintained much will be done to overcome the loss and delay experienced during the early days of the fight to place Virginia in the forefront of the other Commonwealths.

The size of the task undertaken was pointed out by Director McAdams when he announced that if Virginia is to obtain the $45,000,000 allotment, every man, woman and child in the State must purchase Thrift and War Savings Stamps to the value of $1.75 each month.

Uncle Sam's Marines Insured.

Washington, March 2.—The 80th Company, Regiment, U. S. Marines, on active service somewhere in France is insured for $2,545,000.

This undoubtedly establishes a record for individual company insurance subscription. Of the 255 men in the company, 254 took out insurance for $10,000, each, the remaining member subscribed to a $5,000 policy.

In addition to this, 188 men of the same company made allotments, totaling $2,830.50, for the "folks back home."

The March term of the Circuit court, Judge J. B. T. Thornton, will begin on Monday next.

Services at Trinity Methodist church tomorrow will be held as follows: Sunday school and adult Bible class at 9:30, and preaching by the pastor, Rev. A. E. Spielman, at 11 o'clock; subject, "Feeding the Multitude." Communion will also be held following the sermon. An evangelistic service will be held at 7:45 in the evening. Free pews and a welcome to all who wish to attend.

Collector John Hart of Roanoke gave an interesting address on the income tax law last night in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce to an audience composed mostly of the leading business men and bankers of the city. He said the law had been hastily passed by Congress, owing to the short time it had at its disposal before it was necessary to secure revenue for the use of the government, and that although some puzzling questions might arise they could be easily explained if the people would look at the matter in the right spirit. Speaking to his audience he said: "You are Virginians, and you are going to do your duty." His address throughout was listened to with close attention by all present. Mr. Hart stated that he was a former resident of Alexandria, his parents having lived here up to the time he was five years old.

A SERIOUS CONDITION.

Fifty Per Cent of the Seed Corn Reported to be Unfit for Planting.

Blacksburg, Va., March 2.—Careful tests show that at least fifty per cent of the corn that has been saved for planting by farmers in the Valley, Piedmont and Southwest sections of the State is unfit for seed. Tests show that this is also true as far east and south as Brunswick County. Because of an adverse season, followed by early frosts and a hard freeze early in the fall, much of the corn failed to mature sufficiently to make good seed, and the planting of corn that has not been tested for germination could easily mean actual money loss to Virginia farmers of twenty million dollars.

The director of the extension division, Virginia Polytechnic Institute, has had the county farm demonstration agents make careful tests of the corn that some of their farmers are saving to plant and tests have also been made by individual farmers, pupils in the school and others. Reports received at the central office of the extension division on these tests show that the situation as to seed corn is extremely alarming and warrants putting on an immediate campaign for testing seed corn. The seed corn situation has not been as serious in twenty years, and Virginia can less afford to risk the planting of poor seed corn this year than ever before. Raising a poor crop will involve not only a money loss, but will complicate the food and labor shortage.

Good seed corn can be assured any farmer if he will make the proper effort. Simple directions for testing seed corn to determine its germination qualities can be had by addressing the director of the extension division, Blacksburg, and the various counties will lend every assistance possible. The materials required for the tests are easily available to any one without cost. No farmer should buy, sell or plant, untested seed.

TWO CHILDREN SHOT.

Man, About to Wed, Fires at Youngsters Who Tease Him.

Cumberland, Md., March 2.—Fred Shipley, 4, and Lulu, his sister, 11, children of George Shipley were shot late yesterday evening, the latter seriously, at Ohio Pyle, a few miles north of Rockwood, by Thomas E. Fearer, of Uniontown, who is in jail. The bullet has not been located in the girl's body. It is near the heart.

Fearer came to be married to Miss Cordelia Taylor. His arrival was the cause of the gathering of children, who called on him to treat them. The wedding had been set for Monday, but Fearer did not appear, having been delayed by a storm.

The executive committee of the Alexandria Red Cross will hold a meeting in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce on Monday night at 8 o'clock.

In the Corporation Court today a final decree was entered in the case of Emma Dodd Shields vs. Edward Shields, by which a divorce was granted the plaintiff from the defendant on the ground of desertion.

The auditorium of the Second Presbyterian church will soon be ready for use .The church has been closed for several months in order to make the extensive repairs still under way, during which time the services have been held in the Westminster building.

There will be preaching by the pastor, Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison, at the Second Presbyterian church tomorrow. At eleven o'clock in the morning there will be communion service and reception of members. The evening service will be of an evangelistic character. Sunday school will be held at 9:30 a. m., and Christian Endeavor society meeting at 7:15 p. m. All strangers in the city who have no church home are cordially invited to all the services at this church.

CITY GARDEN BULLETIN ISSUED

Department of Agriculture Has Publication Ready for Free Distribution.

Washington, March 2.—To instruct and guide the city dweller in making his back yard produce vegetable food, the United States Department of Agriculture has made ready for free distribution Farmers' Bulletin 936, "The City and Suburban Vegetable Garden."

The home garden movement of last year resulted, according to estimates cited by the Secretary of Agriculture, in the planting of from 200 to 300 per cent more gardens than ever before had produced food. Need for more food this year is expected to result in an even greater number of gardens.

The new bulletin is designed to aid the amateur as well as the experienced gardener. Among the topics treated are:

Importance of city gardens, types of gardening, cost and value of crops from home gardens, labor and expense required to make home gardens, location and soil, size of the garden, arrangement of the garden, fences and windbreaks, succession of crops, rotations, seed, plants, hot beds and cold frames, fertilizing the garden, liming, preparing the soil, planting, setting plants, cultivation, irrigation, control of insects and disease, saving surplus vegetables, directions for growing vegetable crops.

The department also has issued new bulletins dealing particularly with farm gardening in the northern and western States and in the southern States. Another bulletin available for distribution is No. 856, "Control of Diseases and Insect Enemies of the Home Vegetable Garden."

FOR MORE FISH.

Campaign on in New England Urging Fishermen to Catch More Fish for Markets.

A crop of speakers recently covered New England coast villages from Cape Cod to Eastport, Me., talking to fishermen, urging that more fish be caught and suggesting efficient methods. The campaign was in charge of Joseph A. Rich, Boston, Mass. Later the speakers are to go into the cities and urge consumers to eat more fish.

ENDORSE CAMPAIGN FOR A GREATER ALEXANDRIA

Business Men of the City Pronounce it the Greatest Opportunity Alexandria Ever Had—Detailed Plans in Full to be Made Public Within Few Days—To Make the City the Pride of Every Resident.

The Greater Alexandria Chamber of Commerce will either have its own building or other adequate quarters, following the campaign. Leaders in the movement have determined that such is to be one of the first actions of the new organization. Adequate quarters with sufficient committee rooms and separate offices for the different departments, large reading and reception rooms and other club features, and finally a large assembly room—all these things are desired for the new Chamber.

Many of the business men of the city favor a new building, constructed on the model of the best commercial organization buildings of the country. They maintain that such a building would throw the business and professional men of the city constantly together and from this association would come continuous activity in commercial, industrial, and civic life. In any case, it is everywhere recognized that the present quarters would be entirely inadequate to house the Chamber of Commerce with five hundred or more members and its various departments.

A committee was appointed several weeks ago by President Payne to make an investigation and to make recommendations concerning new quarters but in view of the great demand for quick action it is probable that the committee will be instructed to make its report during the campaign.

The letters pouring into the Chamber of Commerce indorsing the campaign are a delight to the officers and members of the campaign committee. There is one great overwhelming thought running through these letters, and that is this:

"Now is the greatest opportunity that Alexandria has ever had. The city can profit permanently from its present opportunities only through an efficient and business-like organization, representing every business and professional activity in Alexandria. There must be no half-way measures in this reorganization. We must build on firm foundations. We must build for permanence. We must build with a great faith in the future of our city. Let us be equal to the great opportunity before us. Let our vision be an Alexandria of big and varied industries, of self-sufficiency in retail business, of a great loyalty that will make every man, woman, and child desire to do his or her buying at home, a city of beautiful homes, and finally a civic spirit that will make it the pride of every Alexandrian to say to the world, 'I am from Alexandria, the best city in the world.'"

The letters express this thought in many ways, but condensed. That is the spirit of the business and professional men that are urging on the great forward movement and offering their financial support and personal service to make the undertaking a tremendous success. These letters are at the Chamber of Commerce and may be seen by any one. Other letters are pouring in by every mail.

The campaign committee is about ready to make public the detailed plans for the new organization. The working machinery of the Chamber is to be modernized, and it will be similar to the most efficient business concerns. The committee will also make public next week the tentative budget for the the new organization, showing the financial needs under the comprehensive plans. Then will follow an official statement and summing up of the entire plans. Not until every detail of the new organization has been made public will any subscriptions for membership be taken.

HISTORIC DOCUMENTS.

Germany Demanded Toul and Verdun of France as Guarantees of Neutrality.

Paris, March 2.—Two historic documents, one showing the German Government's determination to force war upon France and the other setting forth the reasons which induced Germany to take Alsace-Lorraine were made public yesterday by Stephen Pichon, the French Foreign Minister. The Minister was speaking at the Sorbonne upon the anniversary of the protest made by representatives of the National Assembly of Alsace-Lorraine against annexation to Germany.

"I will establish by documents," said M. Pichon, "that the day the Germans deliberately rendered inevitable the most frightful of wars they tried to dishonor us by the most cowardly complicity in the ambush into which they drew Europe. I will establish it in the revelation of a document that the German Chancellor, after drawing up, preserved carefully—and you will see why—in the most profound mystery of the most secret archives.

"We have known only recently of its authenticity, and it defies any sort of attempt to disprove it. It bears the signature of Bethmann-Hollweg (German Imperial Chancellor at the outbreak of the war) and the date July 31, 1914. On that day Von Schoen (German Ambassador to France) was charged by a telegram from his Chancellor to notify us of a state of danger of war with Russia and to ask us to remain neutral, giving us 18 hours in which to reply.

"What was unknown until today was that the telegram of the German Chancellor containing these instructions terminated with these words:

"'If the French Government declares it will remain neutral, Your Excellency will be good enough to declare that we must, as a guarantee of its neutrality, require the handing over of the fortresses of Toul and Verdun; that we will occupy them and will restore them after the end of the war with Russia. A reply to this question must reach here before Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.'

"That," said M. Pichon, "'is how Germany wanted peace at the moment when she declared war. That is how sincere she was in pretending that we obliged her to take up arms for her defense. That is the price she intended to make us pay for our baseness if we had had the infamy to repudiate our signature as Prussia repudiated hers by tearing up the treaty that guaranteed the neutrality of Belgium."

"DuBarry" Tonight.

The great William Fox photoplay, "Du Barry," in which Theda Bara does her most brilliant work, will appear at the Richmond Theatre tonight. This play is the most wonderful creation of its kind that has ever been presented on the films. All that Miss Bara has done only gives a suggestion of the charm and elaborateness of this great production.

The story is a historic one, which many have attempted to write, and it has even been seen upon the stage, but it remained for the films and Miss Bara to give to the world the revelation of the character of this wonderful woman.

GO TO WORK OR GO TO WAR.

The words in this headline is the sentiment expressed by the house of delegates of Virginia toward the thousands of idlers to be found in the cities of Virginia. Pleading urgent necessity because of the acute situation with which the farmers and manufacturers of Virginia alike are wrestling, Delegate E. Griffith Dodson, of Norfolk, yesterday moved to take up out of its regular order the compulsory labor bill. To get it before the house for action, Mr. Dodson moved to discharge the committee on general laws from further consideration of the measure.

Mr. Dodson told the house that this was an urgent war measure. The bill is along lines similar to the Maryland law.

Delegate Walton, of Hanover, challenging the motion of Mr. Dodson, inquired: "Have we not a vagrancy law that will apply to the situation?" Mr. Dodson replied in the negative. He said that the idlers were largely of a type against whom it is difficult to secure convictions when the cases are presented in court. The motion to discharge the committee was carried 44 to 28. The bill will be soon advanced to its passage, which seems assured.

One of the cases before the Alexandria Police Court this morning was that of a negro named Ernest Lloyd who had been arrested twice during the past twenty-four hours for vagrancy. Lloyd was arrainged yesterday on complaint of officers who stated that he refuses to work and acts insolent and defiant when they question him. Judgment was suspended, at the instance of his counsel, for one hour in order to give the accused time to leave the city. But the negro proceeded to a shop in the "Petersburg" district, showing no intention of shaking the dust of Alexandria from his feet. Officer Nevett accosted him, and was answered in an insolent manner. He resisted the officer, and the latter was forced to use his stick upon him. He was sent to jail this morning for ninety days. Laborers are in demand in this city at three dollars a day.

APPEAL TO GERMAN POCKET.

The Chamber of Commerce of the United States, composed of 1,000 local commercial and industrial organizations of the country, has just adopted by the significant vote of 1,204 to 154 a resolution warning German business men that an economic combination will be formed against Germany after the war, unless the danger of excessive armament is removed by making the German Government a responsible instrument controlled by the people.

The Baltimore Sun in referring to the action of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States says most Americans have been disposed to agree with the declaration made by the President some time ago as to the inadvisability of following a war of arms with an economic war. And the vote of the United States Chamber of Commerce does not indicate a change in that view, except as a means of bringing Germany to her senses and compelling her by economic pressure to do what she might not do otherwise. The resolution points out that "the size of the German armament after the war will be the measure of the greatness of the armament forced on all nations," and that "the size of Germany's future armament will depend on her after-war receipts of war materials and the profits of her foreign trade."

The program outlined is a program of defense, not of aggression. It is not designed for purposes of punishment, but for purposes of self-protection. If we are not very much mistaken, the action of the United States Chamber of Commerce will make German business men think very deeply. And if they are forced to choose between autocracy and national prosperity, they will be mighty apt to choose the latter.

INDEMNITY DREAMS.

An incidental budget just presented to the German Reichstag calls for a few billion marks merely to meet the increased interest charges on the public debt. Germany is not raising enough by taxation to pay its interest; it didn't seem worth while at the outset to increase taxation, because the indemnities would be coming in, in a few months, and Pactolean streams would flow from London and Paris. The payments of the indemnity have been deferred. The longer they are deferred the less does the German Government dare to tell its people that they will never get any indemnities. Economists calculate that one-fourth of the whole national wealth has been destroyed. Depreciated paper is issued by billions by the Reichsbank, through the War Banks scattered all over the country to lend you money on securities or your home or your household furniture if you will agree to lend it to the Government again. An endless chain is working in a well that is always growing deeper; there is constantly more chain and less water. Business firms are issuing what we call "shinplasters."

As a cotemporary says, those indemnities will never come. The Germans will not get their war costs from their enemies, and "the word will be with the Prussian tradition." What this means is that the representatives of the people will take possession of the Government, and the Prussian tradition of the monarchy will disappear.

WELFARE OF THE RACE.

There is one bill before the general assembly, reported out by the committee for courts of justice, which is deserving of favorable regard says the Richmond Journal. It is house bill 242, regulating marriages and the issuance of marriage licenses. Its purpose is to inhibit the intermarriage of feeble-minded persons, habitual criminals, the hereditary epileptic or insane person, or any person of any age, who is afflicted with any contagious venereal disease. Clergymen and officers of the law, authorized to solemnize marriages in Virginia, are interdicted under heavy penalty from performing a marriage ceremoney uniting in matrimony those coming under the ban; clerks of court are similarly enjoined against issuing marriage licenses to such, and the right of protest by any citizen having personal knowledge of the itemized disabilities of the applicant for marriage is invited.

No member of the general assembly can fail to be impressed by the necessity for taking drastic steps to prevent the spread of infectious diseases and the wisdom of enacting laws that will restrict the propagation of the species among imbeciles and the criminally inclined..

The act should be passed by the legislature without fail, and the law vigorously enforced thereafter.

WHEN TO EXPECT THE END.

Whether Scheidemann was sincere or was only pandering to patriotism when he said that he could not see a day when Germany would say, "I am beaten; give me peace," it is of the utmost importance that he said—and all Germany heard him say it—that he could not see any day when the Allies would make a similar confession.

The Philadelphia Record in commenting upon the above says the Germans have been enduring great sufferings in the expectation of an ultimate triumph. They are rapidly becoming accustomed to the idea that a German victory is impossible. When the Germans realize that they cannot win they will rapidly lose their resolution to go on enduring.

LEAVE JAP QUESTION TO U. S.

America to be Chief Advisor in Shaping Policy in Siberia.

Washington, March 2.—The entente has put the question of Japanese action in Siberia squarely up to the United States. From a military point of view the United States is eager to have Japan assume the protection of Vladivostok, with its treasure trove of supplies, and other points in eastern Siberia.

Politically, however, it is indicated that President Wilson is not yet convinced of the wisdom of the allied interference in Siberia.

The whole question hinges upon the possibility of recognizing a Russian government, so that operations in the far East can be carried on with its approval. Lacking any authority in Petrograd recognized by the entente, it is feared that to permit entente action in Russia, would be interpreted as a distinctly unfriendly act, likely to swing all Russian sentiment affirmatively in favor of the German invaders.

DIES FIGHTING BLAZE.

Miss O'Brien of Washington Runs to Upper Floor and Vainly Rolls Herself in Blanket.

Burned as a result of coming in contact with a lighted gas range in her home late yesterday, Miss Maria O'Brien, 60 years old, 939 O street northwest, Washington, died two hours later in Emergency hospital.

Miss O'Brien was ironing when her clothing became ignited. She ran to an upper floor and wrapped herself in a blanket. Her screams and the smoke attracted neighbors. Members of Engine Company No. 7 responded to an alarm and found Miss O'Brien still enveloped in flames. First aid was rendered by Dr. H. C. Duffey.

The End of a Hoover Day.

I have come to the end of a meatless day,
And peacefully lying in bed,
My thoughts revert in a musing way
To the food which to-day I've been fed.
When I think of the cheese and the beans and fish
And oysters I've had to eat,
I've no regrets for the "good old days"
I really didn't miss the meat!

I have come to the end of a wheatless day,
I have eaten no cookies or pie,
I have had no bread that was made with wheat;
It was made out of corn or rye;
And I liked it so well, that when war is past
And a glorious victory won,
I'll keep on observing "wheatless" days
And I'll eat "corn pone" for fun!

THREE NEGROES LYNCHED.

Policeman Shot Dead by Colored Youth in Montgomery, Ala.

Rayville, La., March 2,—Three negroes, whose names were given as Jim Lewis, Jim Jones and Will Powell, were lynched by a mob of white men near Delhi, La., in an isolated section of Richland parish, last Tuesday as the outgrowth of trouble between whites and negroes near Delhi Sunday, when a white farmer and a negro were killed, according to reports received here.

Two of the negroes were hanged and the third was shot and killed as he attempted to escape.

Asheville, N. C., March 2.—Willie Williams, a negro, 16 years old, is under arrest here charged with an attack on a young white woman of this city on December 26 last. The young woman yesterday morning identified him as her assailant. He will be tried Monday.

Montgomery, Ala., Mar. 2.—A city-wide search is being made for an unknown negro, who early yesterday morning shot and killed patrolman M. Goocher. The policeman accosted three boisterous negroes, one of whom had a gun in his hands. The negroes turned it on Goocher.

HEALTHFUL WORDS

From an Alexandria Citizen.

Is your back lame and painful?

Does it ache especially after exertion?

Is there a soreness in the kidney region?

These symptoms suggest weak kidneys.

If so there is danger in delay.

Weak kidneys get fast weaker.

Give your trouble prompt attention.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

Your neighbors use and recommend them.

Read this Alexandria testimony.

Mrs. Milton Moore, 123 Duke St., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are a household medcine for kidney trouble in our family. I have taken them on several occasions for backache and other kidney disorders with very beneficial results. I am quite sure that Doan's Kidney Pills will help anybody who gives them a good trial. I know they are a medicine of merit."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Moore uses. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
